Sir,

With reference to attached. In 1929 C.D.C. 17 Lien Tsien Woo (李增華) introduced female Mo Tsan Ying (馬彩英) as agent to the Headquarters staff. She was duly engaged and her husband Hsu Yong Liang (not proper husband and wife, different names) became jealous of C.D.C. 17 Lien Tsien Woo sweethearting with his supposed wife, which is probably true. Mo Tsan Ying, during her period of employment with the Headquarters staff in 1929 became pregnant and had to leave the Police Service.

I understand that at 9 p.m. on 1-12-30 the lady in question Mo Tsan Ying reported at Love Station that she was afraid of her husband Hsu Yong Liang (許鴻良) and was seeking the protection of the Door of Hope, she was accordingly detained for the night being sent to the Door of Hope, and appeared before the Shanghai Special District Court on the 2-12-30 when she was handed over to her sister Lien Mo Sz (李媽氏) and a summons issued for the appearance of her husband. She alleges that her husband is an armed robber and has already been convicted by the Chinese Authorities for robbery committed at Long Doc (廣渡) C.C.I.

In view of the statements and reports attached, I recommend that C.D.C. 17 Lien Tsien Woo be either reverted to uniform or dismissed as he is not suitable for the Crime Branch if mixed up in this sort of affair.

Yours faithfully,
The Dean Jing, etc.

REPORT

H. J. Crime Branch Station,

Date December 2, 1930.

Subject (in full) Alleged attempt to abduct J.D.C. 17 Lien Tsch Woo by 3 Chinese soldiers.

Made by J.D. Ovsianikoff Forwarded by J.D.I. Hunter

Sir,

At 5 p.m. on December 1, 1930, J.D.C. 17 Lien Tsch Woo returned to Headquarters Crime Branch brought to the Central Station a Chinese Lieutenant Quartermaster of 1st Brigade stationed at Haichow named Fong Tong Yuan (方敦源), Chinese officer attached to the same brigade named Lee S Yuen (李世元), Chinese soldier named Van Tan Sung (范得勝), a Chinese male named Hsu Yong Liang (许永良) and a female Lieu Mo Sz (刘莫氏), and reported that the said male persons attempted to take him by force to Lungwa Military Headquarters. In view of the fact that the said detective is attached to Headquarters Crime Branch the case was referred to this office. From inquiries made it appears that at about 8.00 p.m. while J.D.C. 17 was walking along Kiangsue Road near Nanking Road, he was approached by his relative, a female named Lieu Mo Sz, who asked him to go to her house at Ming Tsong Lee alleyway, off Szechuen Road. He went to this house as requested and stayed there for sometime. While he was in the house a Chinese named Hsu Yong Liang, brother-in-law of the female Lieu Mo Sz and formerly residing in her house, entered together with Chinese officers and a soldier. Hsu Yong Liang, whose wife named Ho Tsun Ying (何孙英) formerly attached to Headquarters Staff, had absconded about 3 days ago and he suspected that his wife's sister, Lieu Mo Sz and J.D.C. 17 were responsible for her escape and that they knew her whereabouts. On seeing the J.D.C. in the house, he asked him regarding whereabouts of his wife and ordered to threatened J.D.C. 17 to take him to Military Headquarters if he refuses to say, although they all denied to this questioned by detectives attached to this office. J.D.C. 17 to stop all these arguments, then told all these persons to go to the Central Station, where he made the report as above stated.

D.S. Ovsiannikoff after hearing all evidence, visited Det. Supt. Gilbert and asked instructions in this case.

Det. Supt. Gilbert ordered to take statements from all persons involved in the affair and after the statements were taken and further inquiries made it appeared that there was no evidence at all to support the report made by C.D.C. 17.

The officers and soldier when questioned stated that they went into the house of Lien Mo Sz only because they were invited to go there by Hsu Yong Liang who resided in the house as the latter is friend of Fong Tong Yuen, Quarter-master of 1st Brigade. After further questioning of all persons D.S. Ovsiannikoff informed Det. Supt. Gilbert by the telephone that there was no any material evidence to support the charge of the alleged abduction and Det. Supt. Gilbert ordered to release these men.

The attached are statements made by Chinese officers and C.D.C. 17 and male and female Chinese.

The following is the statement of C.D.C. 17 Bien Tsen Woo native of _____ taken by me Himself at H.K. C.D. on the 1-12-30 and interpreted by Tau Vi Gi

At about 2³⁰ p.m. on 1-12-30 when I was dismissed by D.S. Ovsiannikoff at the corner of Kiangse and Nanking Roads corner, I met my relative Lieu Mo Sz, who asked me to go to her house.
I told her I was on duty, but saying these, we already arrived at the house. Soon afterwards Hsu Vong Liang accompanied by three Chinese military officers came and forced us to the house.
One of the officers asked my name and address. I told him and he wrote them down on a visiting card. He further asked me where Hsu Vong Liang's wife had absconded to. I told them I did not know, but all of them pushed me and asked me to follow them to the Lunghwa Military Headquarters. When we walked passing Central Police Station, I was going to call Policeman, when they said they would follow me to the Police Station on their own accord.

native of Shantung taken by me S.D.S. 122 & S.D.C. 13
at H.Q. S.D. on the 1-12-30 and interpreted by Samuel Yung Pau

I am residing at an upstairs room of a Breakfast Shop, in Wing Tsang Lee alleyway off Nanking Road. At about 2 p.m. on 1-12-30 I met a Chinese detective Lien Tsen Ho at the entrance of Wing Tsang Lee and as we are acquainted with each other, I asked him to come to my home. He refused because he was very busy at that time, but as he was talking to me, my brother-in-law Liu Hsueh Hsueh, accompanied by three Chinese officers, proceeded to me and forced us to enter my home. When one of the officers asked the name and address of Lien Tsen Ho and the latter told him all about it. The officer again said, "Shu Hsueh Hsueh's wife had disappeared, do you know where she is? you must accompany us to the Headquarters at Shanghai. Lien Tsen Ho refused to go with them, but the three officers compelled him to leave my home. I went away with them and as we were passing the Central Police Station, where Lien intended to call the Police, but the three officers willingly followed him to the Station.
I also went after them.

The following is the statement of Hsu Yong Liang (H. Y. L.), age 42 native of Anhui taken by me C.D.S. 31 at H.Q. C.B. on the 1-12-39 and interpreted by Tsu Vi G1

§ 173

My wife Mo Tsan Ying had been a female agent attached to Headquarters Staff from June to November 1929. After her resignation she had been living at her sister's house in Ming Tsong Lee alleyway, off Kiangse Road. I had attempted for several times to bring my wife back to my home in Kompo, but her sister always refused to let her go.

At about 12 noon 1-12-39 I went to Room No. 202 Central Hotel to visit my friend named Fong Tong Yuen. At about 3.30 p.m. I went with him to my sister-in-law's home on Kiangse Rd. A bodyguard accompanied him. On Foochow Road we met Fong Tong Yuen's fellow officer named Lee S Yuen, who was invited to go with us. When we entered the house and proceeded to the upstairs room, a detective named Bien was already there. I introduced him to my friends. Unexpectedly Mr. Bien asked us the purpose of our coming there. I told him that I thought there would be no objection in coming to my relative's house. Mr. Bien then asked us to go with him to Police Station..

My wife Mo Tsan Ying had been evading me for three days.

I am a Quartermaster attached to 1st Brigade, Haichow.
I accompanied my Brigade General Fong Zung San to Shanghai on 26-11-30. I am living in Room No. 23 Tah Yang Hotel, Boundary
Road, whilst Brigade General Fong living in Room No. 202 Central Hotel, Hupeh Road. At about 3 p.m. 1-12-30 I was in Room
No. 23 Central Hotel, where my friend named Hsu Voong Liang offered to lead me to have a sight-seeing. On Foochow Road we met Lee S Yuen, an officer of the 1st Brigade. Mr. Hsu then asked us to go with him to the house where he was living.
When we entered the house ^{in an alleyway} off Kiangso Road we saw a male and a female there. The male Chinese asked me my name, and I told him. On being asked, he told me that his name is Bien Tsch Woo, a Settlement detective. He asked us why we came to the house and wanted us to leave our names in the Police Station. We refused to do so, but he said he would call Policemen if we did not. So we followed him to the Police Station.

The following is the statement of Hsu Mo Sz (许马氏) alias Ho Tsan Ying (何致美) native of Shantung taken by me Tsu Yi Gi at H.Q. C.B. on the 2-11-30 and interpreted by Tsu Yi Gi

I am a native of Shantung, age 35. I was married to Hsu Vong Liang in May 1922 at Wong Doo, where we lived for about four years, and during which period my husband made his living by smuggling salt. In the autumn of 1927 my husband was put into jail on a charge of armed robbery committed by him at a cotton shop in Tsung Ka Zah village, Wong Doo. As I had no means of living, I went to Shanghai and lived in my sister Liou Mo Sz's house in Ming Tsong Lee alleyway, off Hiangse Road. In July 1929 I was introduced by my brother-in-law Lien Tsan Woo (C.B. 17) to be a female agent attached to the Headquarters Staff with my husband's consent. In December I was dismissed by Mr. Aiers on account of my physical unfitness. Ever since I had been living at my sister's house, but my husband, who was then in Tanchow, never visited me nor sent me any living expenses. In June 1930 I went to Tanchow to find my husband and discovered that he was living with another woman. I argued with him but he assaulted me in every way. Finding that I could not get out a way with him I left him and went back to Shanghai. On November 24, 1930, my husband came to Shanghai from Tanchow and met me at my sister's house. He accused me that I ran away from him and wished to take me back to Tanchow. As he had forsaken me and lived with another woman, I went to apply myself at the "Door of Hope", Howehang Road, at about 12 m.m. on November 28, 1930. It was late then, and the door was closed, so I went temporarily to my cousin Vang Young Hwe's house at No. 107 Sing Hong Lee off Tatung Road. I made a second attempt at the "Door of Hope" at about 4 a.m. next morning, but was refused. At 7 a.m. I attempted at "Chiu Tsi Wei", Honan Road Bridge, but was again refused. Later I proceeded to Shanghai Woman's Society at Small South Gate, Kantoa, but they did not accept me. Seeing that I was not successful in my attempts, I went to Leum Station hoping that they would introduce me to the "Door of Hope". When questioned as to my reason of applying myself to be admitted to the Society, I stated that I would rather pass my life in the Society than to be the wife of Hsu Yong Liang who is a bad character and had forsaken me.
